

Brenda Simonsen

Acrobatics

Brenda has enjoyed dancing since she was two years old. Taking various classes including Acrobatics, Ballet, Jazz, Lyrical, and Tap at Georgia's School of Dance. Brenda has attended many workshops and Jazz dance world congress. Brenda's passion has always been acrobatics and she began teaching it in 1999. Short there after she started competition Acrobatics at Georgia's School of Dance.

Brenda believes in being a role model to her students, and building their self confidence. Brenda is outgoing and believes in hard work and practice. Brenda's loves to tell stories when she choreography's and loves to use props. She believes in the mottos "Never say you can't always try" and "Things happen for a reason". Brenda's has learned a lot from dance, she has learned discipline, respect, stage presence, patience, and building lifelong friendships that she hopes to pass that onto her students. When Brenda is not teaching she has her own DJ business "Dancin DJ B ", she works as a Lead EMT at Tri-City Medical Center in the Emergency room, she is married and has three dogs (Piper, Penny and Diggity), she loves movies, musicals and she loves to just hang out with family.