

Matt Malufau

Hip-Hop, Adult and Boys

Matt Malufau has danced since he was sophomore at Castle High School in Kaneohe of Hawaii, receiving his early training in the art of dance from Dora Luna and Marcelo Pacleb. Initially trained as a Jazz Dancer, Mr. Malufau was always drawn to Hip Hop, and he was offered a scholarship to dance with 24-VII Dance Force where he improved his style and technique in this dance genre.

Mr. Malufau quickly became an accomplished performer, participating extensively in multiple dance concerts and events with both Castle Dance Force and 24-VII Dance Force.

After High School Mr. Malufau decided to join the Marine Corps to serve his country, but he has continued to broaden his training as a Hip Hop dancer, teacher and choreographer. His styles of Hip Hop include Lyrical Hip Hop, turfing, hard style, Jump style and pop and lock, among others.
